SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- 1. In February 1950 two guerrilla bands, each with about 300 armed men and several powered junks and motor boats, were in control of Linting Island (114-02, 22-05) at the mouth of the Pearl River. One of the bands was led by WU Tung-ch'u (吴京) against vessels entering Communist China, while the other, led by T'ANG Yen-kuang (景文光), operated against fishermen and shipping in the Hong Kong-Macao area.
- 2. LI Fu-lin (李 林)* through his representative LI Tsung-heu (李宗詩), trensmitted orders to the guerrilla bands. On 5 March 1950 a Nationalist gunboat in contact with LI called at the island for meetings with T'ANG and FU. WU was placed under arrest and the control of the island was given to T'ANG and his followers.
